Wiener Strudel

In July 2009 Vicki completed filming a documentary called Wiener Strudel ("Viennese Pastry") in which she was the producer, pianist, and featured protagonist. Wiener Strudel was directed by Arthur Andelson and shot entirely in Austria.

Film Synopsis:

Wiener Strudel (Vĕ'ner Strü-dəl): Viennese Pastry, a sweet dessert with a filling inside. All the ingredients of Austria's national treasures are carefully blended and delightfully savored days before and after the 2009 Save the World Awards. This multi-layered documentary deftly delivers a charming, intriguing "glass slipper" subtext as its filling.
